

LONGITUDINAL JOINT REPAIR

Skid Steer Attachment Designed for Longitudinal Joint Repair

- Remove and replace at deeper depths on the joint line or other targeted areas
- Requires less material
- Cuts a V-shape into the pavement that allows the new material to bond better to the existing pavement
- The tapered cut alleviates the shearing effect that is seen with the flat surface cuts

V-head drum technology can be adapted to existing grinding equipment